

ROBERT ADAMS FAMILY APPEAL

Sometimes, words don't seem enough
To say thanks, for what you have done
You answered a call, when a mate took a fall
And gave to this much needed fund

They say that you're lucky, to have friends in life
Who'll be there through the thick of it all
To hold out a hand, and help if they can
Who'll be there when you stumble and fall

You are those mates, that they all talk about
The ones, that they all want to find
Good allies in life, in trouble or strife
Who are generous and giving and kind

I know that Robert is humbled
By the help and support he's received
With the fund to help out his family
In this, their hour of need

So, thank you for your donation
And for showing that you care
And, for helping a mate through the tough times
When the hand he's been dealt, isn't fair

With thanks from the Management and Staff at AWN
